Comment on Passing Events.

By Frederic Heath

All times are hard times for the people who do the world's work.

Crooks are produced under the capitalist system by the extreme difficulty of making an adequate living by honest toil.

And the main interest Christendom shows in the development of aerial navigation is its usefulness in the game between nations, called war!

Here's worse luck, and more of it. Scientists have at last determined that whisky not only does not cure snakebites, but that it actually makes the venom more fatal.

Sooner or later there comes to every man the fear of an impoverished old age. The richest among men, with very few exceptions, have no security against it, living among the ravening wolves of business and finance. How little it is to demand of society that after a life of contributing to the wealth of society by honest toil, society shall preserve its workers in honorable leisure in their declining years! Old-age pensions would help some, but even that is fought by capitalism, which has no compassion for its victims and calls them the "unfit."

The first paper to be printed in North America in the language of the Ukraine Cossacks is the Socialist monthly, Robutchi Nard, or the "Working People," which has just been issued at Winnipeg, Manitoba. The paper uses the ordinary Russian type, but the language is that of the Ukraine, the Cossacks whose activities under the famous leader Hmelniiski pre-saged the final downfall of Poland and whose alliance with Peter the Great made possible the victory of Poltava against Charles XII. of Sweden and the establishment of the Russian empire.

When, in June, 1780, a dispairing letter from Washington was read to the Pennsylvania assembly, and one of the members took the floor to contend that it was useless to struggle for independence longer, it was Thomas Paine, then clerk of the assembly, who turned the tide as he had turned it before. He started a subscription with the full amount of his salary, and it finally reached a million and a half dollars. Paine's life was brim full of acts like this, and at many points he showed what one determined and faithful man can do. His mite always became a big mite, a fact that all reformers ought to recognize.

The truth is that religious people have everything to gain by having the schools non-sectarian. They should be entirely secular, but the religious views of the majority will creep in, so that there will be plenty of references to deity, and as much as they have a right to expect.

In their state platform some years ago the Wisconsin Social-Democrats, in demanding free school books even advocated that the state give church schools the same free books. It was met with ridicule and insult from the archbishop's side. They seemed to feel that there was such a thing as Catholic arithmetic, Catholic grammar, Catholic spelling, and Catholic physiology. In other words, the public school book appears to be on the "Index," also.

One G. Major Tabor has written on "practical" Socialism vs. "ideal" Socialism in a Western review. The modern Socialist orator and writer represents ideal Socialism, he says, while this government is "following along the lines of practical Socialism in regard to the postal, revenue and coinage," and will, in time, it is hoped, own the roads that carry the mails and thus escape the extortions of contractors.

Mr. Tabor's article shows him to be very ignorant of social evolution and social conditions, and especially very ignorant of the subject of Socialism, which he so readily writes about. If he had even read the national platform of our party it would have saved him from publicly displaying so much of his ignorance.

Ideal Socialism simply leads the way for practical Socialism, and the Socialists are not at all blind to the Socialistic things the government is doing, and its work in that line is much more extensive than Mr. Tabor suspects, we are sure.

But what the government does not begin to be all that it could do, or all that the people would be glad to have done—it has merely got as far as it has got. And its progress is especially gratifying inasmuch as the government is still in capitalistic hands.

Nowhere in the world do wealthy women drink so freely and audaciously as in New York, declared he. "New York women drink very, very freely. Their husbands seem to allow them carte blanche. I suppose the reason these women drink other thing. Those Socialists will force a lot of "practical" Socialism, never fear!

Competition has of necessity pursued its game until the ability to compete rests in fewer and fewer hands. Industry in many lines is becoming centralized in so few hands that the government will sooner or later have to take charge to save the people from a most intolerable situation. And this will be a few steps more practical than the "practical Socialism" that Mr. Tabor speaks of so patronizingly, we guess. Better that the people collectively own the centralized industries and themselves get the benefits, than that the wealth produced goes into a few private coffers.

The trust stage of industry is fast forcing this "practical" step upon the people.

But Mr. Tabor doesn't agree with the Socialists as to the trusts. He gives us this reactionary view of the situation: "The Socialist orator will tell you that the trusts are the legitimate result of competition, which is exactly the contrary, as it is the want of competition that fosters them." This absurdity is not original with Mr. Tabor. Bryanites and others have tried to comfort themselves with it.

Trusts are not produced by lack of competition. The stage of competition always precedes the trust stage. The former leads to the latter. Competition played to a finish produces the trust. Trustified industries have followed this path. Just now there is talk of a grocery trust, and grocers have been competing with each other these many years, goodness knows, each grocer with hatred in his heart toward his nearest competitor.

"Would that we had a trust founded upon the great moral principle of the Golden Rule—there would be no robbery in that," Mr. Tabor says. But this would mean the ownership of the trust by all the people—and it is competition that seems to really pine for. But how a man can stand for the competitive struggle and for the Golden Rule at the same time passes our understanding!

The Educational Crime

"(1) A modern university must be accessible to every class, not merely in the formal sense that it admits every applicant of good character who satisfies its educational requirements, but in the practical sense of making it certain that no one will be excluded merely on the ground of poverty.

Religious tests were abolished at the older universities some thirty years ago, and the step is usually held to have been a wise one. But to the majority of the working classes who are in receipt of incomes of less than $400 per annum, a system which excludes a student because his parents' means are small appears indistinguishable in effect from one which excludes him because (in England) his parents are Roman Catholics or Nonconformists.

Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, in an article in the North American Review, discusses the question of the physical deterioration among the poor. This subject is of vital interest because of the exceedingly large per cent of our people that fall into the class known as "poor."

The reverend gentleman gets his first impression by observing the athletic build and splendid physique of the cadets of the naval war college at Newport. He asked the officers where such men were found, and was answered: "We pick them up in the cities—narrow-shouldered and knock-kneed. Once here, they have plenty of sleep, fresh air, plenty to eat, and the best oversight we can give them."

The transformation is worked in two or three months.

The causes for impaired physique are: over-crowding and under-feeding.

La Parola Die Socialista, an Italian weekly, published at 145 Blue Island avenue, Chicago, Ill., has finally been granted the second class mailing privileges.

Chicago is up against another exhibition of the murderousness of capitalism. The street railway, panting after more profits, recently put on cars with wider aisles, so as to increase the straphanging capacity and therefore the dividends that come from crowded cars. This made the cars themselves wider and lessened the space between the cars when they pass each other. The result has been that within two months twenty-five Chicagoans, caught between the cars, have been rolled to death and dropped to the pavement with the life squeezed out of them. Chicagoans are protesting, and the company stands its ground—because it costs money to build the cars, and money is more important than human life.

Why We Have Rich and Poor

By Victor L. Berger.

CAPITALISM is the wall that the devil has put up between the laborer and his product.

The laborers, under present conditions, cannot employ themselves, are dependent on the will and convenience of some owner of tools and materials. And not for love, nor for Christian charity, does the owner of the tools and materials give the laborers employment. He does so to invest capital, and to make a profit.

And the workingman's labor has become a mere ware in the market, and, as such, his labor (i. e., himself) subject to the same conditions as every other ware, the conditions of supply and demand. And he and his labor are now subject, also, to competition.

The workingman's labor, or rather his time, that is, his life, is bought now in the open market by the highest bidder on the one hand, from the lowest seller on the other. And the capitalist, or employer, cares to buy the laborer's time only when he is young, strong and healthy.

And because of this, we are actually worse off than the blacks were under slavery before the war. The black was "property" and represented about $1,000 of value, which his master owned; therefore, the master took good care of him, and was anxious to have him in good condition as long as possible.

It is, of course, different with the white slaves. They are free to starve! Who cares? There is usually no capital lost by their being starved.

The average capitalist is, therefore, much more concerned about his horse or dog than about his workmen, many of whom he does not even know by name.

I have said that workers are now subject to competition. And competition has come to have a fearful meaning for them. For, on the one hand, it compels the employer to get his labor as cheap as possible, while on the other laborers are driven to the desperate necessity of competing with each other in order to maintain an existence. Employers of this and other countries now get their labor from the laborers for a price much below the productivity of that labor.

How did this come about? Well, by the development of modern industry.

In the middle ages, before capitalist production had come upon the stage of events, a system of small industries prevailed, and, in some few cases, continued almost to the present day. This system rested on the private ownership by the workingman himself of the means of production. The instruments of labor were then paltry, dwarfish and cheap—and for that very reason, as a rule, they belonged to the producers themselves. Since the Fifteenth century, and especially since the power of steam was utilized, these limited implements of production were gradually enlarged, united and improved, until the common tool of the middle ages, and even some of the instruments that were common fifty years ago and later, were transformed into the machines of today.

Every great industrial country but our own has conceded labor relief from the fetters of the medieval doctrine of malicious conspiracy. Germany, until recently, tried to secure industrial peace by repression, and its great army could not prevent constant turmoil. The boycott and the strike are today definitely legal in monarchial Germany. In England labor has enjoyed a position of equality before the law with employers since the 70's. And England is the one country in which strikes, absolutely and relatively are decreasing, in which violence in connection with strikes is practically unknown. In our country the strongest unions have ever been most conservative. The doctrine of malicious conspiracy stands in the way of industrial democracy. Remove that obstacle. Give the trade union a chance; and we will hold that this is the highway to social progress and true industrial peace."

To bring about this change from individualism to collectivism will require a mighty campaign of education, greater even than that which was necessary in reference to slavery. The movement of restrictive legislation was not a temporary flood; it was just beginning to run," he said.

The same spirit of democracy and human emancipation was seen in several of the graduation orations. Thus Edwin E. Witte of Watertown, Wis., made a splendid plea for labor solidarity in the solving of the industrial problem, through trade union action. He said society for its own good must give the trade union a chance. Here are several of his best periods:

"A system of law under which every boycott and one-half of all strikes are declared to have been undertaken in defiance of the law cannot be defended. The doctrine of malicious conspiracy which has branded laboring men as criminals in almost all of their activities stands condemned, and must be swept away.

"He is surprised and angry at the new conditions which are contrary to all traditions in this country, which were not the conditions of his father, or even of his youth.

"The unconscious pressure of these facts, because only recently have they been formulated, has been the controlling factor in leading the people to change their views in reference to unrestricted freedom of individuals and corporations to control the resources of which they have possession.

"To bring about this change from individualism to collectivism will require a mighty campaign of education, greater even than that which was necessary in reference to slavery. The movement of restrictive legislation was not a temporary flood; it was just beginning to run," he said.

A Remarkable Achievement

The first announcement concerning the new building project of the People's Realty company in the SOCIAL-DEMOCRATIC HERALD was made March 20, 1909. At that time many of our friends, while wishing the project early success, were very dubious about the matter.

They felt that the hard times would make progress very slow. Yet in spite of this over eleven thousand dollars were subscribed in less than three months' time. This pace beats the best previous record for raising money for our movement all hollow. There never was anything where so large a sum was pledged in three months' time. And, mind you, this was accomplished without in the least interfering with the raising of funds to cover our campaign deficits. In fact, the promotion of the building was undertaken, at this time, only with the understanding that it would not injure the reduction of our debts left from the campaign.

If any of the readers of the HERALD are inclined to invest in the stock of the People's Realty company they had better do so soon. With the amount spoken for there is very little left. For the benefit of those who do not yet understand the plans we will state them again:

The location is one of the best in the city. The site is situated at the northeast corner of Sixth and Chestnut streets, and is fifty by one hundred and fifty feet in size. Chestnut street is one of the main streets in Milwaukee. The building will consist of a high basement and three stories built of concrete and brick. It will be modern and fire-proof.

Such a building, it is estimated, will cost about thirty-five to thirty-seven thousand dollars. As the lot was purchased for $12,500 the total investment represents an outlay of approximately five thousand dollars. The lot will be paid for by the proceeds for the sale of capital stock. These proceeds will yield more than $2,000 over the purchase price of the lot, which can be applied to the cost of the building.

To pay for the erection of the building it will be necessary to mortgage the place. At the prevailing rates of rent in this district it is safe to figure on an income of over $700 per month. But let us be conservative. All we will figure on is $600 per month. This is based on quite a little below the prevailing rates of rent and it ought therefore to be easy to rent the building. As a matter of fact, we

Grafters Who Supply the Wax

Senator Flint, Billy Lorimer and Uncle Ike

Those Who Furnish the Most Wax Get the Plums. Carrying Water to the Plum Tree Also Helps Sometimes

By William Henry Ferber

(Written for the HERALD.)

By their fruits ye shall know them.

Bible.

HIS article is not written on the subject of horticulture, neither on agriculture, nor on fruit culture. But if you will read it to the end, you will get some "food for thought."

About eighteen months ago I heard a gentleman talking very earnestly and ardently in the lobby of the hotel where I am now staying. He was talking for Taft, and about Taft.

During all these eighteen months this gentleman has ardently labored in the interest of Mr. Taft, and for the G. O. P., and has furnished "grafting wax" for the party, and carried "water" for the plum-tree. He went out of his way to berate the Socialists, and acted as a spell-binder "to once more catch the labor vote." And he and the others "cotched em"—I mean that the labor vote was once more given to the G. O. P.

Now this gentleman has asked for "plums." His henchmen were told to inform "the powers that be," how faithful and true had been his Republicanism. How he had furnished both grafting-wax and water during the "Russeyvelt" campaign, as well as for the Taft campaign, and, therefore, this gentleman was entitled to "plums"—patronage.

And President Taft did not use the "god sports" phrase, "nothing doing," but, instead, the companion phrase of "something doing" was used. And this gentleman—this good Republican who has so liberally furnished wax and water—is to be given a fine plum; and it will be in the shape of postmaster of Sacramento, Cal. Now, isn't that a nice plum?

United States Senator Flint, like the senile senator from Wisconsin, was not very much loved by the progressive element of the Republican party. But Senator Flint has furnished both wax and water, and so when the legislature met in January last, it was found that Senator Flint, who is now in his dotage, still was handed the plum he craved.

"Billy" Lorimer, who has at all times been true to those whom he represents (I mean the packers and others), has also secured a plum. Well, "Billy" deserves what he got. He is one of the members of the American House of Lords. Yum, yum, a plum for Billy.

When John C. Spooner resigned his seat in the United States senate, all the politicians who had profited by the contribution of grafting-wax from Uncle Ike, raised the cry: "Reward Uncle Ike, for he has carried water to the plum tree for so long many years. Give Ike a plum now as a reward!"

Well, Uncle Ike got a plum, and although old, his taste is very acute, so he furnished much wax for the grafters, and carried water for the administration and for himself, and demanded the much vaunted plum—and your Uncle Ike got the plum. Now ex-Congressman Cook and the other two gentlemen must not hang their heads in dismay, and say, as does A. Mutt: "What is the use?" No, not at all, for they did not carry enough water, nor did they furnish enough wax to the grafters to expect the plum.

And what about you, Mr. Workingman? Have you received any political plums?

I suppose a few voters got a little of Uncle Ike's grafting wax on their fingers when the grafters handed out a small patch of your uncle's wad of wax. Some of you also got a bit of water, which you thought looked like plum cider to you, and you went to the primary—which Governor LaFollette knew would cure certain political abuses—and you voted to "advise the Wisconsin legislature to bestow the senatorial plum upon Uncle Ike, and Isaac got the plum. For Isaac furnished wax to the grafters.

Well, I notice with some pride that a certain Republican, a once prominent boss in Milwaukee county, says that some of the Social-Democratic wards are "bad."

Well, the gentleman doubtless meant that wax in the hands of the grafters in those wards would not bring results. (Deviating from the subject a little.) I remember my first experience in grafting. I selected a good scion and started to "graft" upon a stock, which, though healthy, produced poor fruit. But I had not learned to make a careful point. Neither did I know how to prepare my wax, and so gentle reader, my experience in the nursery business was a sad one, and I was doomed to disappointment. My wax was wrong, and my "joints" were not accurate.

I have never tried any grafting in politics. I do not like the touch of the political wax; nor have I learned how to join the scion to the stock.

I have carried water to the plum tree; but never got any of the nice, sweet juicy plums. I did, however, get a few very bitter and sour ones. Those handed me were like LEMONS. This was, dear reader,

Jap Strikers in Hawaii Right

Crimes Under the Flapping of Old Glory

Planters Exploit Labor to the Bone and Drive Competitors to Wall. May Make Trouble With Japan

(National Socialist Press Bureau.)

CASHINGTOM, D. C., June 24.—That American and English sugar planters on the Hawaiian islands are by their treatment of the Japanese laborers going to cause war between this country and Japan is the opinion of Representative Victor Murdock of Kansas.

Mr. Murdock has personally investigated labor conditions in the islands. Discussing the last night, he said:

"Unless the planters change their methods of dealing with the Japanese laborers, this country and Japan are going to have serious trouble. The planters are to blame for the recent strike which I predicted some time ago. It is their bullying of the laborers that has caused all the trouble. They do not treat the Japanese right. They work them long hours and treat them with contempt."

"While I was in the islands I went into the interior of several and found deplorable conditions. Everywhere the Japanese were treated unfairly. The planters think they are kings and handle the people like serfs. Every Japanese and native in the islands is bitter against the planters, and it would not surprise me a bit to see a general uprising against them."

Americans Share Abuse

"The sugar people on the islands seem to have lost their minds, or else they are working with the intent of bringing on trouble between the United States and Japan. Not only do they treat the Japanese and natives with contempt, but their countrymen are not above their abuse. The poor American who goes to the island with the intention of working is made as miserable as possible, and that, too, by his own people."

"From what I saw, it is my opinion that the planters—that is, the rich ones—are trying to convert the islands into sugar preserves and nothing else. They are using every means to this end. Men who are doing their best to get a living raising coffee on a small scale are hounded out of business. The planters never seem to let up. They keep at it until the unfortunate coffee farmer sells his place to them at their price or quits in disgust. The planters are trying to stifle commerce of every kind except sugar."

"The effects of such a policy of oppression can be plainly seen. The Japanese are a sensitive people, and they are educated. The insults which they are receiving are not helping this country. They take things to heart and remember the treatment they are and have been receiving. They will remember that they were treated thus by Americans. The little men feel the insults, not as men, but as a nation.

Government Should Interfere

"The time has come for this government to step in and stop the abuses which the planters of the Hawaiian islands are heaping upon the heads of their own countrymen and the Japanese, to say nothing of the unfortunate natives. In case of a war with Japan the planters would be the first to run screaming to the government for protection, and yet their conduct is making enemies for the nation every day. The planters want and receive protection from the government, and yet they seem to let no opportunity pass to place that government in a bad position."

"President Taft should investigate labor conditions on the islands at once. He should name a good man to do the work, and do it in an open, public way. The president would be dazed if he knew the real conditions of the islands."

Absolutism

The difference between the so-called open shop, demanded by the employers, and the union shop, demanded by the workers, is the difference between absolute monarchy and constitutional government carried over from the political to the economic field.—New York Call.

FREDERIC HEATH, VICTOR L. BERGER
Editor Associate

The Herald is Not Responsible for Opinions of its Contributors.
Official Paper of the Federated Trades Council of Milwaukee and the Wisconsin State Federation of Labor.

Entered at the Milwaukee Post Office as Second-Class Matter, August 30, 1901.

Recent HERALD callers: William F. Cattell, Buffalo, N. Y., C. R. Fernekes, Pittsburg, Pa., J. Everett Seely, Salt Lake City, Utah, G. R. Brandt, Dubuque, Ia.

The Worker of Sidney, Australia, copies with approval the greater part of an article on the labor and political movement in Australia written for this paper some time ago, by Comrade Edwin Knappe, of Milwaukee, who had just returned from a globe-trotting trip.

The Japanese plantation laborers of Hawaii have organized to increase wages and to better the miserable housing conditions imposed upon them. The plantation owners have decided as an opposition move to stimulate immigration of the contract labor variety. Being backed up by the territorial government, they are taking advantage of a ruling of the Bureau of Immigration at Washington, permitting state and territorial governments to import foreign labor. A. J. Campbell, acting as agent for the planters, left Honolulu on May 25, destination unknown.

A party referendum is being taken in order to add the following plank to the national platform:

"There can be no absolute private title to land. All private titles, whether called fee simple or other-

New International Secretary

The vote by the national committee for the election of an additional secretary to the International Socialist Bureau closed June 14, and resulted in the election of Comrade Victor L. Berger of Milwaukee. The candidates, by the preferential system, received the following votes: Berger 67, Flotow 87, Spargo 74, the vote being by first, second and third choice, the candidate receiving the lowest total being therefore the choice of the greatest number.

A mass convention of the Socialists of South Carolina will be held at Charleston on July 4.

The Socialist state convention of Maryland will be held at Hagerstown, July 4 and 5.

Trying to Contrive a Prosperity

(National Socialist Press Bureau)

Washington, D. C., June 24.—It is becoming daily more evident where the Taft administration expects to get the impetus for the prosperity boom of which we have been hearing so much and seeing so little.

It is to come out of the Orient, and it is hoped it will be the characteristic feature of the Taft administration. In other words, it means that Taft's acquaintance with the Philippines and his connections throughout the far East will enable him to push the "open door" policy farther in China than it has ever been before. The capitalists, of course, recognize that they can only have "prosperity" by selling in a foreign market what the American people are too poor to consume. China and Mexico are the two most promising fields at the present time for the extension of this most necessary market.

As the New York Herald remarks:

"It is learned that Frank A. Vanderlip's visit to Washington as a representative of some of the largest financial interests in the country makes practically certain the declared purpose of seizing the foreign commercial opportunities which American enterprise has let slip hitherto in the Orient."

All indications are that the remarks:

"It is learned that Frank A. Vanderlip's visit to Washington as a representative of some of the largest financial interests in the country makes practically certain the declared purpose of seizing the foreign commercial opportunities which American enterprise has let slip hitherto in the Orient."

The statement to which reference is made says, among other things, the following:

"The government of the United States is much gratified at the formation of a powerful and responsible American financial group to enter the important field of investment in China, and is giving to their enterprise that cordial support which the department of state stands ready to give all legitimate and beneficial American commercial and financial undertakings in foreign countries. Such undertakings are to be encouraged because of their benefit to American commerce and to international relations."

Must Get Together

The membership of organized labor, as a general rule, hurl the most vitriolic language against the man, who outside the pales of organized labor, usurps the place of the union man, who is fighting a battle against the industrial oppressor. But such vitriolic language comes with poor grace from members of organized labor, when one labor organization scabs upon another, and furnishes the strike-breakers to win victories for a class of privilege and at the expense of a class whose burdens are almost unbearable. The employing class has never won a strike. The wage slave has always done the fighting against his class to place the crown of victory on the brow of a master. The defeats of labor on the industrial field, are due to the lack of solidarity, and there can be no unity until aristocracy is banished from the labor movement and men and women in the avenues of manual and mental toil, recognize the fact, that wage slaves should be bound together by the ties of class interest.

If the labor movement of this country is to live, the time is near at hand, when the representatives of national and international labor organizations must come together in a conference, with the sole object in view, of taking the necessary steps to bring the scattered regiments of labor together in a united army.

The common enemy, the capitalist class, now presents a solid front, and organized labor need not expect any quarter from corporate plutocracy.—Minder's Magazine.

Wisconsin State Federation of Labor

June 19, 1909—Wisconsin State Federation of Labor—Executive Board meeting, local quorum.

James Sheehan, chairman.

Appeal considered of the Carpenters' Union No. 1053, for financial assistance in aid of its members on strike. On motion $100 was allowed from the defense fund.

The secretary was instructed to purchase 100 books on direct legislation. The legislative situation on workingmen's compensation act and compulsory arbitration was considered at length. The board decided to remain firm, in favor of the English system of compensation and against any compulsory arbitration. And instructions were given to the secretary to keep a close watch on these subjects.

The meeting adjourned subject to the call of the secretary.

Fraternally submitted,

Fred Brockhausen, Sec.

Wisconsin State Organization.

Carl D. Thompson, 344 Sixth St., Milwaukee, Wis., state organizer; to whom news and other matters for this department should be sent.

CLIFFORD: Local Clifford asks for a speaker for their town. The subject selected by them is "The Difference Between Socialism and Anarchism."

CAMPBELLSFORT: The good people of Campbel's Fort will hold a "Homecoming" celebration on July 4. They have asked for a Socialist woman speaker. Comrade Thomas will give them a Fourth of July speech.

GILLET: Comrade Horsmann, who has worked alone and faithfully in this town for many years, has secured another member-at-large. The members-at-large are our pioneer workers and are doing a great deal of good all over the state.

SUPERIOR: The Finnish branch of Superior has voted $15 to the state campaign debt. This is in addition to what the English branch has already contributed. There is nothing small about Superior.

LA CROSSE: Rev. W. P. Cunningham, our member-at-large at La Crosse, has offered his services as a speaker in small towns in the vicinity of La Crosse. This offer fills a long-felt want. There is every prospect of a good organization in La Crosse in the near future.

Now Then All Together

If we all pull together then that county campaign deficit must vanish. Almost $800 has been raised in six weeks. Now let's make a big line for the $1,000 mark. That having been reached we can soon master the situation again. Let me say, pull together and help wipe out the deficit.

Fifty-seven people saw the Twenty-first Warders pull down the Seventeenth Warders in the two series played at Huelshbeck's grove last Sunday, by a score of 15 to 5. The Seventeenth Warders seem to be no match for the young ball players of the Twenty-first Warders. The game in the morning at the same park, between the Coming Nations and the Social-Democratic Herald, was by no means a one-sided affair. It was anybody's game until the last inning, when the Coming Nations scored 4 runs and defeated the Social-Democratic Herald by a score of 9 to 3.

The following games are scheduled for Saturday afternoon, June 26 and Sunday morning, June 27:

Twenty-first Warders vs. Social-Democratic Herald, Saturday afternoon, June 26, Washington park.

Seventeenth Warders vs. Coming Nations, Sunday morning, June 27, Humboldt park.

The latter game will be called at 10 a.m. sharp. The Twenty-first Warders will play their first game on Saturday, July 3. The team is under the management of Conrado Uruback, who promises to put a strong team in the field after this date.

Tickets have been sent out to the various branches, and will also be placed on sale at a number of business houses down town, as well as in the outlying district. The admission price will be 15 cents per ticket, and we hope that the comrades of our party will try and interest the young people throughout the entire city to participate at these games. It is one of the best ways by which we can interest a large number of young people in our principles, and later on be able to secure them in our party organization. So don't forget the dates. They are published in this column every week, and try to help the good work along financially as well as in attendance.

Seven Practical and Dependable Ways of Doing Old Things by Newer, Shorter and Easier Methods

How long do you spend getting your monthly trial balance? How much does it cost you to hunt the mistakes in it—to rectify the errors in accounting and pay your force for working overtime? Wouldn't you like to get the trial balance from three hours to three days earlier, and cut out all the time spent chasing down mistakes?

There are four different ways of doing this with a Burroughs Adding and Listing Machine, and we'll be glad to show you how without any expense or obligation. It can be done without the machine, too, but then there is danger of mistakes. The Burroughs can't make mistakes.

Let us show you these four time-and-worry saving ways of taking a trial balance. Just sign the coupon.

Cut Out the Journalizing of Cash

A lot of time is spent every day in journalizing incoming remittances as a preliminary to posting to the ledger, and the danger of incorrect posting is doubly increased. Sometimes the postings can't be made the same day the remittance is received—more chance for mistakes.

Throw your journal aside—prove cash postings and discounts—remove the possibility of posting to a wrong account—have an absolute check on the cashier's cash—with the Burroughs Cash Received System.

Hundreds of mercantile concerns are doing this, and we will be glad to tell you how for the coupon. We will furnish life-size forms showing how this saving may be made in your own business, and we will have our representative demonstrate in your own office just how the Burroughs will help you. It won't cost a cent. Sign the coupon.

Trial Balance Insurance

The daily proof of postings affords the ounce of prevention which is worth several tons of trial

Our great organization and our years of experience are at your service. We'll be glad to show you how others are escaping their accounting troubles

At the Theaters Next Week*DAVIDSON.

A spectacular revival of Bronson Howard's war play, "Shenandoah," will be seen at the Davidson theater as the offering of the Sherman Brown Stock Company for the week beginning Monday night. One of the most exciting scenes of a modern war drama is depicted in the ride of Sheridan, as he comes to take command of his fleeing troops, while one of the most pathetic is found in the death of the soldier boy—the binding link between estranged husband and wife—who expires in his father's arms after the battle. This is the first war play to be presented on the stock stage in Milwaukee.

Charming Della Fox, who heads next week's bill at the Majestic, has lost none of the grace and charm which made her the most popular of light opera stars, will offer some of her famous "boy" songs. Hassan Ben Ali's wonderful troupe of Arab acrobats, presenting a whirlwind exhibition; Lew Sully, in his original conception "Words and Music;" the Five Avolos, European Xylophone Artists; the Boothblack Quartette; Sullivan, Pasquena & Co., in the comedy, "A.C.O.D.;" Lena Panzer and her company; the Worthleys, in "On the Beach," and the cameragraph pictures are the other features.

An Act of Kindness

Last Sunday one of our readers noticed some people standing at Mason and Broadway. On investigation he found that two of the recently Clancy-fired firemen had found a starved cat and had secured a basin of milk for it from a near-by saloon. The interest of the crowd lay in the fact that the milk was ice cold and that the cat was lapping it up under difficulties. But the big, brawny firemen had placed the saucer in the sun on a hot pavement, and soon had the milk moderated and the cat make quick work of it. It was a noble and humane act, and bystanders freely showed their appreciation of the humanity of the men in their comments.

One of the firemen was William Sullivan, who was removed by Clancy along with Harden, Driscoll and the others, because he was serving the city instead of Clancy. The other was Ed. Wiese, who was fired by Clancy because he gave Dist. Atty. McGovern some information about the department, it was claimed. Wiese was formerly an engineer on a fire boat and was shifted several times by Clancy out of ill will. He, Wiese, has a fine record as a life-saver.

Sullivan is a man of the most humane impulses. He simply cannot brook abuse of dumb animals. Some years ago he was in Ironwood, Mich. He saw a man take a bull dog by the ears and spit in his face. Without a moment's reflection Sullivan landed on the brute—the man, not the dog—with both fists, and gave him a punishment he was not likely to forget very soon. The man had Sullivan arrested. The judge heard the testimony and discharged Sullivan, but fined the other fellow $10 and costs.

The Milwaukee fire department is full of such men as these two spoken of above; brave, manly fellows that Milwaukee feels safe to have around when its property is threatened. But if the present chief of the fire department, who looks upon the department as his personal machine, holds sway much longer, such men will become scarce in the service. Our fire department will not get back to its old form until the city puts a competent chief in charge.

Special Privileges

The common council has absolutely no right to pass a special privilege ordinance. When it passes one it merely goes on record as conniving at law breaking on the part of the person or company getting the grant. Being wholly illegal, the action of the council in such a case cannot bind any city department or officer. If the council votes to allow some merchant to erect a bay window in front of his store in order to out-hunch other business men, the city building inspector has the right, and it is really his duty, to stop the building of the same, because the law he is sworn to uphold forbids it. The same is true with the erection of a bridge across an alley, or the laying of a side track.

All this comes from the fact that the law is plain that no one shall have special privileges over others. The city could get into a nice scrape in case anyone protested and went to the courts. And a city officer might be made to feel the heavy hand of the law in case he connived at a violation of the laws, and some one tested the question out.

The only reason the council votes special privileges and the city officers obey its command, is that everybody winks at the practice.

And yet, in spite of the law,

Deadlock on Trusteeship

A deadlock, such as the Milwaukee county board has never seen, resulted yesterday afternoon over the election of a member of the county board of trustees. The fight over the election lasted for two hours and 25 minutes, during

Music for the Masses

It was our good fortune last week to listen to the mass singing of the upper grades of one of our city schools, the Sixteenth District No. 1, at Eighteenth and Cedar streets. The work done was marvelous. It is what is being done in all our public schools. It would have done credit to any auditorium in the city, or to represent the city in any other city. It represented the improved work in this line in the city schools, and its educative effect upon the rising generation must be great. Compared to it the old-time sing-song music of the schools was primitive and haphazard indeed.

This wonderful education of the masses in music will make demands upon the city which will have to be heeded. A universal appreciation of music will demand the means to gratify it and the city will have to respond. We have an auditorium partly in the hands of "business" men and city officials of the same low ideals, and already this remarkable board has clapped on a schedule of rents calling for $1,000 a night for the use of the building.

We promise you that once the Social-Democrats get the power in this city, there will be "something doing" in the matter of that auditorium. We will capture it back for the people to whom it really belongs!

The idea of a big structure for the benefit of big conventions and other things to bring people to the city and hold them while business interests get their coin, is commercially brilliant, of course. But the Auditorium is not to be a mere business annex or feeder if we can prevent it. Such use will be only incidental.

We will have music festivals for and by the people in it, and great concerts—the best to be had—at the lowest possible prices. Everything the people demand in that line shall be theirs.

And this suggests another thought: When will Milwaukee seriously set to work upon a symphony orchestra?

"The civilized stage turns every vice, which barbarism practices in a simple way, into a complex, ambiguous, equivocal and hypocritical form. It moves in a vicious circle, in the contradictions which it eternally reproduces without being able to remove them, so that it ever accomplishes the very reverse of that which it really does or pretends to aim at; for instance, that in civilization poverty is born of plenty."

Fouquer.

Joey Doe might talk it over with Attorney Killheil!

River street is the most prosperous business street in the city, judging by the rents.

Mayor Rose hints about settling in Seattle. It may be that in time we will have to write it: Westward the star of the red light district takes its way.

Since when has the Free Press started in to fight Mr. Beggs' battles for him? Time was when the Free Press was pretty much on the side of the people.

The state factory inspector claims that the labor laws are so full of blow-holes that he is powerless to do anything in regard to the unsanitary Alteration Department at the Gimbel's store.

Ald. Seidel's resolution to have the city appropriate money out of the general city fund for the Penny Lunch Fund which the School Alliance is so nobly maintaining, has good chances of going through. It will take the smell of charity off the lunches.

Judge Carpenter will address the Wisconsin County Judges association on "Court Room Ethics."

Ethics! What in thunder does a lobbyist-judge know of ethics? The association is rapping at an ill-smelling door for its ethics, it would seem.

Beggs howls about down-town congestion of street car travel. And when Ald. Seidel proposes that the congestion be reduced by a system of short route transfers instead of forcing people to ride clear down town to change cars, Beggs gets mad. Slippery Joe et al get mad, and even the Free Press gets mad. The latest exploit of Dick Witte, lobbyist, of Rose, Witte & Rose, attorneys, was in connection with value to be given in the proposed new franchises! The very idea, indeed!

The governor first of all belongs to the capitalistic interests that control politics in this state. Therefore he vetoed the Fire and Police bill. Also he is a politician. Therefore he said he was in favor of the men having the right of trial. The Janssen-Clancy machine, and the interests they serve do not care how much bunk the governor gives the firemen. The main thing is that the hill has been killed.

A cowboy has just been arrested in Milwaukee on complaint of a 16-year old girl whom he is alleged to have seduced. Every cowboy show that has exhibited in Milwaukee has attracted young girls to the side gates, and the open flirtations have been scandals in the neighborhoods. Not only cowboys, but Indian bucks have scandalously carried on with the silly girls in the vicinity of the parks. Where are the officers who are supposed to deal with such matters?

The Sentinel is cautious. We Socialists charge that the Republican and Democratic parties are but two wings of the same bird—capitalism. Papers like the Sentinel deny this and insist that they are separate and opposing parties. The county board is voting on a member of the County Board of Trustees, and the vote on Tuesday stood 6 for the Social-Democratic candidate, 5 for the Democratic, and 4 for the Republican. And the Sentinel promptly says in its headlines: "Republicans and Democrats Must Combine to Elect Successor to Manegold." There's a dead give away, all right. The Free Press naively remarks that the Social-Democrats could have easily broken the deadlock by going over to one of the old-party candidates, while "neither the Republicans or Democrats are expected to go over to the Social-Democrats." Yet why should Social-Democratic supervisors forsake a Socialist candidate for an old-party one. At present the board of trustees is entirely composed of old-party men. The principle of proportional representation ought to deserve a little recognition, especially as so many working people have to enter the institutions that these trustees have charge of.

The Gargoyle, swell restaurant and drinking place for women on Grand avenue is clean in front of the scenes only. It has an imposing front and a decomposing rear. Next door to the restaurant is a millinery emporium, where on the second floor at the rear a number of girls are employed at trimming and sewing. On hot days these girls have to gasp for breath because of the stench that comes in the rear alley windows. For the Gargoyle throws its slops and garbage into the alley where it festers and stews, and sends up its reeking odors, so different from those of Araby the blessed. It is said that several of the girls have had spells of sickness because of it.
